

the red lion inn

reliability cycle ride

In association with the red lion inn at Bobbington and local cycling clubs

A scenic and largely flat but challenging 60 mile route around the roads of Shropshire and Staffordshire, riders of all abilities welcome!

Takes place on: Sunday 1st February

Signing on opens (in the pub!): 8.30am

First Group leaves at: 9.30am

Scratch group leaves at: 10am

Entry costs: £5

This price includes a pint of beer (coffee/tea if you are driving) OR a bacon sandwich!

Along with route sheets, route signing and good company.

There will also be a £1000 raffle on the day! Prizes include a meal for 2 and a night in the hotel.

The red lion inn at bobbington have kindly offered to help organise this fundraising event. All money raised will go towards supporting local racing cyclist Alastair Carr in his forthcoming season in France where he will be riding with COC Fougères in an attempt to turn professional. The money will provide vital aid helping to pay for food, living quarters and bike spares.

To follow his progress visit: <http://alicarr.blogspot.com>

For more information call Alastair Carr on: 07870273034 or e-mail: alijcarr@hotmail.com

the red lion inn
eat drink & sleep luxury, modern & contemporary guest accommodation

bookings : 01384 221237